~ Biblical Wisdom ~

What was envisioned years ago is being proved true South of the Border today!

Go to the ant...which... provideth her meat in the summer and gathereth her food in the harvest.

Proverbs 6:6-8

The people of the United States's good neighbor, Mexico, seem to be heeding this bit of advice from the Bible. That country's economic troubles are eased, thanks to what Mexico's President, Miguel de la Madrid described to the Mexican-Jewish community as the "solidarity of every Mexican." Recently, de la Madrid expressed his appreciation of that group's contribution to the effort.

During a meeting with the members of the Friends Association of the Jerusalem Hebrew University who informed him of a conference this group will hold in Mexico in 1984, the President declared:

"Surely the effort of the Israeli community, together with the rest of the Mexicans, is what has allowed us to end 1983 in better condition than at the beginning of the year; with a more solid and stable basis which will enable us to go on fighting the crisis."

The main subject to be discussed at the proposed conference will be agriculture and the program will include lectures on "rain stimulation," "optimum use of water," "plant resistance before adverse elements," "plant protection in arid zones" and "storage and handling of seeds and its plagues."

Mexico's turn toward prosperity and the solidarity of all its people, that has helped bring this about, can be heartening news for Americans and for people all over the world.

Mexico's new undersecretariat, created by a decree from President Miguel de la Madrid, is especially interested in investments of industrial equipment that will help develop the country according to the national development plan.
